

COOKIE NOTICE

The website www.inheritcarbonsolutions.com is provided by Inherit Carbon Solutions AS ("Company", "we", "us"). Here you will find information about how and why we use cookies on our website.

What are cookies?

Cookies are text files with a small amount of data that are added to your browser's internal memory and let websites remember information about you such as login information or user preferences for a specific site, as well as providing statistics that we use to make our web pages better for our users. Cookies may be created directly by our website (first-party cookies) or by other websites (third-party cookies).

Pixels are image files (pixels) that trigger the use of a cookie after an event occurs. Pixels are used to connect you to third party websites.

Scripts are pieces of code that are necessary to activate a pixel or used to identify your browser or device across different visits and websites.

We may use both session cookies (which expire once you close your web browser) and persistent cookies (which stay on your device until the expiration date or until you delete them).

Our use and categories of cookies

We use cookies for the following purposes:

Necessary cookies. Cookies necessary for basic functions on our website, such as security and network management and to enable you to fill out forms.

Analytics cookies. Cookies to analyse, create statistics and reporting for the purpose of improving our website and services, such as the number of visitors and which sites are visited the most.

Personalisation cookies. Cookies allowing us to remember your previous choices, if any, and to provide you with customised content on our website.

Marketing cookies. Cookies to provide targeted marketing on other sites and platforms (such as on social media) based on certain parameters, such as data about your behaviour on our site.

Your consent

You have the right to decide whether to accept or reject cookies. You can exercise your cookie rights in the cookie notification banner on our website. Please note that if you do not accept cookies many websites will not function optimally. Also note that you cannot disable necessary cookies.

Data protection

Normally, our use of cookies does not involve the processing of data that we may link to you as an identifiable individual (personal data).

Our legal basis for using cookies that contain personal information is GDPR Article 6(1)(f): our legitimate interest in customising your experience on our websites. If you have accepted the use of targeted cookies for advertising, our basis for using such cookies is the GDPR Article 6(1)(a): your active, opt-in consent.

Visit our Privacy Notice linked on the website for more information about how we approach data protection.

Changes to this Cookie Policy

This Cookie Policy may change from time to time. We will notify you by appropriate means if we make any changes of significance to you. You will always find the latest version of this notice on our website.
